Testimonials

You have been one of our most popular speakers! The feedback from our participants was exceptional and everyone wants you back again as the keynote speaker.

-Women's Leadership Conference

Kelli is truly a fantastic speaker, and even through a computer screen, she radiates warmth and compassion. Kelli led thoughtful discussions, offered powerful advice, and created an inviting space for attendees to practice vulnerability. I'm still blown away by how engaged my colleagues were throughout the entire presentation!

-National Insurance Company

Kelli was so easy to work with and really listened to our pre-conference prep with her. The team loved what she had to offer, and most importantly, found her credible and understanding of our industry (which is critically important and often missed).

Leading with Clarity & Confidence

More women than ever are in leadership today, but there is still a gender gap in the top rooms where decisions are made.

It's not just enough for women to be in the room, but to make impact in those rooms. In fact, research shows that companies who have diverse leadership teams generate more revenue.

This experience provides women with leadership and confidence building strategies to define their leadership brand, amplify their voice at work, lead with confidence, trust themselves to make clear decisions, and take brave next steps in their career.

Everybody wins as women step into their power and organizations benefit from their clear and confident leadership.

Tame Your Imposter Monster

When you're about to do something exciting in your career, why is it so hard to shake the feeling that you'll be "found out" as unqualified, a fraud? This feeling has a name – imposter syndrome. Stop overestimating others' intelligence and underestimating your own and learn to overcome doubt to lead with confidence.

3 Expensive Mindsets (and how to reframe them)

Three expensive mindsets are costing you your peace, potential and paycheck: Scarcity thinking, not asking, and stalling for clarity. Learn how to reframe these mindsets so they don't hold you and your teams back from turning ideas into results.

Enneagram & Leadership Workshop

Leaders can't develop their team to a higher level than they've developed themselves. The Enneagram helps you shift into your truest, most confident Self, improve team dynamics, and lead with more emotional intelligence.
